STRANGE SOULS

— TRIBUTE TO THE DOORS —

THE DOORS TRIBUTE THAT PLAYED THE WHISKY A GO GO.

No wigs. No costume act. The Doors, reimagined live: the music, the poetry and the danger, played by a frontman who moves like Morrison and a band with decades on stage.

THE SHOW

A REAL MORRISON PRESENCE. A BAND THAT CAN REALLY PLAY.

Strange Souls: The Doors Tribute brings the music, the poetry and the danger of The Doors to the stage. Based in the Washington, DC area since 2021, the band has played the Whisky a Go Go and the Troubadour in Los Angeles and is booked at theaters and clubs across the East Coast and Midwest.

Frontman Jerad Szadkowski is athletic and airborne: he jumps, he stalks, he flies. Behind him, players with decades on stage. David Korteling plays guitar like Jimmy Page sat in with The Doors.

The show runs from radio favorites like Light My Fire, Break On Through and L.A. Woman to deep cuts like Shaman's Blues, Indian Summer and Land Ho!, and they play the entire Morrison Hotel album.
